NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 27, '98.

The Young Ladies Democratic Club held their first regular meeting yesterday afternoon at Mrs. C. A. Hammers. The President, Miss Virginia Hanner, in the chair and Miss Annie Wheeler secretary pro tem. After adding several new names to the roll they drafted a constitution and by laws. The ladies are all delighted at the interest being shown by the members.

If you wish to see some very large and peculiar potatoes, stop at the Enterprise office. They have on exhibit there one that grew in an old shoe.

The southbound vestibule, No. 37, came in this morning about run down. She stopped here to raise her steam.

The wrecked freight at the depot may not be sold at auction as was stated two days ago. Some of the goods are at the Sechrest building and will doubtless be sold privately. Go and see them, you may get a bargain.

We have had some white-faced republicans in town for some time. Yesterday we had bears and umbrella men; today we have organ-grinders and monkeys. Gosh! what will strike town next.

Tomorrow night congressman W. W. Kitchin will speak in the Anchor warehouse. Don't fail to hear Mr. Kitchin. He is an able speaker. Come out and see for yourselves how he is compared with "Old Spence" Adams who is running for the same office.

WHITE MEN, LISTEN!

Your Wives and Children Are Calling for Protection!

Communicated.

On October 19th, we, the Democratic Young Ladies of High Point, formed a club, which we agreed to call "The Young Ladies' Democratic Club." Our purpose being to do all we can to further democracy, consistent to a woman's sphere and a daughter of the South. We hope to have all the democratic young ladies of the town to become members, and we even hoped, and still hope, to hear of other clubs being formed in the State.

We have met with opposition, as we expected. Some will not become members, saying, "Women have no business meddling in politics."

I am a true Southern woman and it is for this reason I have become a member of the Democratic Club. Until this year I felt very little interest in politics, and yet I am no believer in a woman becoming a politician. However, there are things within a woman's sphere she can do without overstepping the dignity of a true woman and a daughter of the South. And it is these things we propose to do with real zeal born in every Southern heart.

We have no intention of going to the polls fighting or talking politics; nor do we expect to vote. We might form every lady in the state into a club and we could not vote, nor do we wish to. That is a man's place and to him today comes the cry from all over the Old North State to save her from dishonor.

How can any man with the same issue that of "White Supremacy," vote anything but the democratic ticket? He can't do it. Any one voting the fusion ticket when their wives and daughters are calling to them for help; all we have to say for such a one is: "God made him for a man, therefore let him pass." But if he votes that ticket, let him go with those he votes for—not with the fair daughters of the dear Sunny South.

To the men of North Carolina do we appeal for help. Just in sight of land is a ship, upon whose prow are the words, "White Supremacy." The waves are dashing high and the ship is tossing upon the mighty deep. The people upon the shore are watching anxiously the course of the mighty ship. When the signal of distress comes from over the raging deep, they listen, the signal is repeated again and again. Who will be the first to volunteer? A man cries out: "Come! save the ship! Our wives and children are on board."

Men of North Carolina, today you see the great ship of "White Supremacy" tempest-tossed upon great waves of Fusionism! Your wife and children are calling for protection! Stop and listen!

A member of the "Young Ladies' Democratic Club."

"THERE WILL BE NO PEACE

As Long as a Single County Is Ruled by Negroes."

KITCHIN'S TRUE DECLARATION.

The White Republicans Will Share the Responsibility Equally with the Wilmington Negroes.

Long before 7:30 o'clock last night the court house was packed by the largest and most intelligent audience that has greeted any speaker here since the campaign began. People eager for seats brought benches from the grand jury room and placed them inside the bar, and men eager to hear the young orator rushed over each other in their efforts to reach them. When all the seats had been taken the aisle was packed with standing men who were determined to hear the speech of our present and future congressman.

Shortly after 7:30 Congressman Kitchin appeared at the door, escorted by Mayor Zeb V. Taylor. No sooner was he seen by the crowd than a deafening cheer, in which every man in the audience seemed to be doing his best, broke forth and continued until the speaker was seated on the rostrum. Mayor Taylor paused for the mighty wave of applause to cease, but it continued to increase in violence till he stepped forward and held up his hands for silence. When quiet was restored the mayor, in a few choice words, introduced to the audience the already familiar Hon. W. W. Kitchin. Mr. Kitchin arose and another prolonged cheer and thanked the audience for the enthusiasm they had already shown. He began his speech by saying:

"Fellow citizens and ladies: I wish Judge Adams were here tonight. The fact that he is not here is not attributable to myself. If that distinguished republican who was my opponent two years ago were my opponent now, we would be having a joint canvass of this district. Mr. Settle was, in my opinion, the choice of the republican forces, but the nominating convention was controlled by republican leaders. The chairman of that convention was a white man; the secretary was a negro; there were twelve white and twelve negro delegates. Settle was placed in nomination by a white man and received a majority of the white votes. Adams was placed in nomination by a negro and received a majority of the negro vote. I challenged Judge Adams for a joint canvass. He refused and determined not to have it." The speaker read a number of letters which he had written Judge Adams and the one reply he had received.

"For twelve years Adams has given his support in electing negroes to office in Caswell county, and is giving it to elect the republican county ticket with negroes this year."

The speaker then took up his record in Congress. He told how he voted and repudiated Adams' statements that he voted for a solid-bug speaker of the House. He voted for Bailey, of Texas, the leader of the silver forces in the House. He voted against the Dingley tariff. He asked that the Fraud Fund be abolished.

The speaker said, "I have some enemies in this district who are charging that 'Kitchin brought on the war.' In McKinley's administration the Lord brings all the bad things and McKinley all the good. During Cleveland's administration everything bad was brought on by him—cyclones, floods and everything else. It has been charged that Cleveland brought on the Charleston earthquake."

Finishing his record and actions in Congress he announced that he would discuss State issues.

The speaker tried to make no sensational speech. He merely stated the facts as they stand so prominently in the eastern counties and requested that the audience should not interrupt him by their applause, as two speeches a day for several weeks had made it hard for him to speak at all. He made stirring allusions to the domination of negroes in the eastern part of the state and, in spite of his request, the audience frequently lost control of itself and applauded to the echo.

The speaker said: "Russell may proclaim and Pritchard may write to McKinley and his chain, but there will be no peace as long as a single good county in North Carolina is under negro domination. The white republican of Guilford will share of the responsibility equally with the ignorant negro of Wilmington. The indications are that I will beat Adams twice as badly as I beat Tom Settle and that you will carry Guilford county by a good majority."

The close of the speech was affecting and touching. He urged all white men to stand together and throw off the yoke of negro domination in eastern North Carolina peaceably. The divorce incident was a grand climax for so noble and telling an effort by a man of unsurpassed ability and unimpeachable honor.

Every hearer was more than ever convinced of Kitchin's honesty and unflinching integrity and of his eminent fitness for the exalted position of our people's representative in congress.

RACE WAR ENDED.

Death List in Mississippi Numbers Fourteen Blacks and One White.

Forest, Miss., Oct. 26.—The bodies of three more negro rioters have been found in swamps north of Harpersville, which swells the list of killed to fifteen—fourteen negroes and one white. One of the negroes who was wounded during the riot and who escaped into swamp, went to Walnut Grove and surrendered in order to get medical treatment. The race war is now at an end. The blacks who were not killed or captured have escaped into Pearl River swamp, and the whites have abandoned the chase. Bill Burke, leader of the blacks, has not yet been apprehended. The negroes who were captured have all been taken to Meridian for safe keeping.

NO LIVES LOST.

But All Clocks in High Buildings Were Stopped.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—No lives were lost in yesterday's storm. The total damage will reach a hundred thousand dollars. The lake shore walks and promenades suffered the most.

As an indication of the fury of the storm the official clock in the hydrographic office in masonic temple, was stopped by the vibration of the building. Lieutenant Wilson says that all clocks in high buildings were stopped.

Star Feature of the Peace Jubilee.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—This morning the sky is clear, with bracing wind, and ideal weather for the military parade today, which will be the star feature of the Peace Jubilee in this city. All the Philadelphia sidewalks along the line are packed with people, and the stands, which have been erected for the occasion, are crowded with people. The parade started promptly at 10.30 a. m. President McKinley, General Miles, and others of military and civil prominence, occupied reviewing stands. To-night all the buildings in the city will be illuminated in honor of the Peace Jubilee.

NOTHING DEFINITE SETTLED

In Regard to Formation of French Cabinet.

On the Ministerial Lists—Court of Cessation, to Decide on Revision of Dreyfus Case, Opened Today.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Oct. 27.—Nothing definite is yet settled in connection with the formation of the new French cabinet. The air, however, is full of ministerial lists in which the name of Ribot figures prominently. He is said to be favorable to the candidature of Elysee palace, and it is generally believed that President Faure will appeal to him to form a cabinet of republican concentration with Del Casse remaining in the foreign offices. Such a cabinet would not oppose a revision of the Dreyfus trial. Ribot has always been regarded as being favorable to a reopening of the case.

THE COURT OF CESSATION.

Paris, Oct. 27.—The court of cessation, which is to decide upon the question of re-opening the Dreyfus case, opened at noon. The hall was crowded, but there was no demonstration around the palace. The gates were closed, however, as a matter of precaution, and only holders of tickets were admitted. Spectators outside were kept moving. Labori, Zola's counsel, was a prominent spectator. Mme. Dreyfus was provided a seat, and the case was called promptly.

Reporter Bard opened the proceedings, by referring to the excitement and scandals the case had caused. He spoke of the efforts to obtain a revision based on the suspicion that the bordereaux was written by Esterhazy, and pointed out that there were suspicious facts which justified a revision. Mme. Dreyfus claimed that her husband did not write the bordereaux, but the court would have to examine into the facts. She said that Col. Henry's forgery of a confession was evidence which left the forger open to suspicion and formed ground, in fact, for a revision.

A Political Scrap.

John Sumner, a white painter, and three negroes got into a political discussion in South Greensboro this morning, and, of course, had to fight to settle it. John must have been a democrat, for it is said the way he carved up those three negroes was a caution. He used a knife that cut as bad as John Wilson's arguments cut Bradshaw. When the fight was over the boys pushed left town.

Receiver Appointed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Wool Warehouse Company, was today placed in the hands of a receiver by the Supreme Court. This action has been expected since the closing of the Wool Exchange and the failure of the Tradesmen's Bank.

Negotiations Strained.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Oct. 27.—Gaulois says that Spain's envoys have gone as far as honor will permit, and that peace negotiations are strained to the breaking point.

Prentiss Webster Dead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Lowell, Oct. 27.—Prentiss Webster, a nephew of General Butler, died last night.

Not Paid Yet.

One of the very lasting memories of the summer outing of Russell's Braves, the Third North Carolina Regiment, colored, at Fort Macon, last summer, is that the bills for Russell's excursionists, most of them, still remain unpaid.

The merchants of Beaufort, Morehead and New Berne, have on their books it is estimated, at least five thousand dollars, which the government owes them for supplies furnished these colored paraders, who were as unornamented as they were useless.

The merchants who furnished these supplies made very small profits on their goods in the first place, and this delay in payment will make them losers by the transaction.

There is no good reason why these accounts should not be settled and at once.—Newbern Journal.

WILL NOT SPEAK SATURDAY.

The Governor's Appointment at Wilmington Cancelled

Governor Russell will not speak in Wilmington Saturday. He decided this yesterday.

Immediately after the announcement of his appointment to speak there, along with Butler, Pritchard and Dockery, he was advised that to do so would cause trouble. His friends wrote letters begging that the engagement be cancelled.

The citizens of Wilmington, also, wished to preserve peace, if possible, held a meeting and sent a committee to Raleigh to lay the facts before the Governor and ask him not to go there to speak. This meeting was one of the largest and most representative ever held in Wilmington. The committee it sent consisted of Messrs. James Sprunt, E. K. Bryant, James H. Chadbourne, Sr., and Dr. Peyton H. Hoge.

The committee arrived here yesterday afternoon and called on the Governor. After the conference His Excellency telegraphed to parties in Wilmington that he would not be able to fill the engagement.—News and Observer.

ANOTHER TOBACCO COMPANY.

International Incorporated as an Ally to the American Tobacco Co.

New York, Oct. 26.—The International Tobacco Company of New York was incorporated in Albany today with a capital of $150,000, to deal in leaf tobacco and manufacture and deal in smoking tobacco and merchandise pertaining to the tobacco business. It was reported in Wall street that the International Company would be an ally to the American Tobacco Co. It has been understood that that company proposed to organize a new company, presumably to handle its plug tobacco business.

Little further developed in Wall street today regarding the new Union Tobacco Company, which was incorporated yesterday. It has been understood that this company would be a competitor of the American Tobacco Company in all branches of the tobacco industry.

Latham—Deacon.

Mrs. T. J. Jewett, of Greensboro, N. C., accompanied by her sister, Miss Latham, left yesterday afternoon to attend the marriage of their brother, Mr. Charles S. Latham, which will take place in Stafford county today at 5.30 p. m. He will take for his bride Miss Maggie E. Deacon of that county. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Latham's father it will be a very quiet affair.

Mr. Latham is well known and quite popular in this city where he has resided for many years. They will make their future home in this city.—Manchester (Va.) Correspondence Richmond Times.

Not Assassinated.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 27.—A rumor was current this morning that President Faure of France, had been assassinated. The report was immediately cabled all over the world as a rumor, but in a few hours the report was definitely denied. The Paris advices created a panic at first.

Don't forget to listen for Mr. Douglas' declaration that he is in favor of a "white man's party" when he comes around to speak in Greensboro.

And poor, negro-ridden Wilmington is still to be prosecuted further. We see it stated that Russell, Pritchard, Butler and Dockery are soon to invade that city in a speech-making raid. Verily, Wilmington should have the heartfelt sympathy of all loyal and true members of the Anglo-Saxon race.

Spencer B. Adams has repeatedly been the running mate of negroes in Caswell county during the last twelve years. He now refuses to meet his opponent, Mr. Kitchin, in joint debate. What a contrast in the republican candidate now and two years ago. Settle him the courage of his convictions and always met his opponent. Adams is an artful dodger.

The mica mine and bull calf orator from away up in the mountains, who occupies a seat in the United States senate, makes a puny attempt, in an open letter, to destroy the truth contained in the recent letter of Postmaster Chadbourne, of Wilmington. It is unworthy of a fusion candidate for the legislature, to say nothing of a man who wears the dignified title of United States Senator.

The Caucasian howled until it was red and blue in the face in its eight-page supplement in trying to prove that white is black. The same supplement was sent out with the Progressive Farmer, Home Rule, and other fusion papers throughout the state, but the theory doesn't seem to work very charmingly. The people, it seems still retain their eyesight and sense of smell to a very keen degree.

Col. J. S. Carr, as chairman of the democratic executive committee of Durham county, has his sleeves rolled up and is in the fight to win. The Durham Sun says he is personally sending out some very effective cartoon cards. They are the largest postals seen in this part of the country for some time. They are in the nature of a personal appeal to all to whom they are sent to do their duty in this campaign.

One by one the days are slipping by, and it is but little more than a week before the battle of ballots will be fought and the destiny of the Old North State sealed for weal or woe for the next two years. White man, where are you? There are white republicans in Guilford who have not yet realized the full force and gravity of the battle that is being waged. If they love party and pie more than their birthright as white citizens, then they will not change; but if they will allow race pride and the full, rich blood of white freemen to assert itself they will go quietly to the polls and vote the white man's ticket, which is a vote for the protection of home, wife and children and for peace once more in the good old state.

PROPHETIC LINES.

Written Thirty Years Ago, But They Hold Good Today.

If our North Carolina friends feel the need of a poetic stimulus to their efforts for the redemption of the Old North State we beg leave to commend to them the spirited verses which are subjoined.

They were written thirty years ago, in 1868, and the editor of the State as a little boy memorized them then so thoroughly that he recalls them in full although he has not seen them in print since they appeared that year in the New York Day-Book. The writer was a western farmer.

Prophetic these lines proved to be. At the time they were composed Seymour was competing with Grant for the presidency. The negro was not yet in practice a voter. Reconstruction was not complete. Carpet-bag, scalawag and negro rule was yet in the future. The era of "good stealing" had not set in. Yet in ten years from that time the destiny of the South had been fulfilled and the black shadow had passed from every State. In ten years the whites "ruled the land" again, despite numbers, and bayonets, and the war-hatred of the North. And the world approved. Even Northern Republicanism acquiesced.

The issue is revived in North Carolina; and with the issue comes the thought that burns in the verses.

The whites shall rule the land or die!
The purpose glows in hearts of steel;
With burning cheek and flashing eye
We wait what waiting may reveal.

But, come what may, the whites must hold

What white men's patriot valor bought;

Our grandsires' ashes, not yet cold,
Hallow the soil for which they fought.

Shall low-born scum and quondam slaves

Give laws to those who own the soil?
No; by our grandsires' bloody graves;
No; by our homesteads bought with toil.

Our rights are rooted in the land,
Our law is written in the sky;
Fate flings the fiat from her hand:
"The whites shall rule the land or die!"

—Columbia State.

DON'T LIKE PIE HUNTERS.

Will Vote with Democrats So Long as Negroes Draw the Color Line.

Smithfield, N. C., Oct. 26.—Dr. G. J. Robinson, a prominent physician of this place, and brother of Judge Robinson, of the Superior Court, today authorized the following statement:

"I am and always have been a Republican, but I cannot support the pie-hunting gang who are aspirants for office in North Carolina. There seems to be but one issue. The negro has drawn the color line, and so long as such a state of affairs exists, I shall support the Democratic party, and earnestly wish all true republicans may do the same." G. J. Robinson.

Katie and The Baby.

The Negro-Fusion party in Durham nominated Mr. W. T. Mangum, of Lebanon township, for magistrate. He declines the place in a letter that will strike a responsive chord in the heart of every good man in the state.

He wrote:
"I believe the race to which I belong is the first in the world, and I am unwilling to consign in any measure the government of my state and county to any other race. In behalf of 'Katie and the baby,' of the white man and white metal, I am forced by a conviction that will not be hushed, to appeal to their only champion and advocate, the democratic party, and I earnestly beg my populist friends vote with me." Every man who loves his wife and baby ought to do likewise.—News and Observer.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.
"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e. theory) says is best, to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Kicking themselves around the block is what people often feel like doing when they see the exquisite Laundry work on their friends' shirts, collars, and cuffs that has been done up by our superior methods, and realize that they have been giving their own work to an inferior washer-woman at nearly the same price we charge. Come to see us and see if we can not make it to your interest to patronize us.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

See change in Ingram's ad on this page.
O. T. Leonard, of Ramseur, was in the city today.
W. C. Cowles, of Statesville was in the city at noon today.
Don't forget the oyster supper at the Groomer building tonight.
Lemuel H. Gibbons, a student of Trinity High School, is in the city this afternoon.

Fresh bread, cakes and mince pies, are the articles mentioned in the new ad of O'Connor's bakery.

The Greensboro Ice and Coal Co. have something to say about 'sparkin'
in their ad on third page. Read it.

A mixed excursion passed through yesterday afternoon en route to Mt.
Airy from Bennettsville, S.C. It goes back tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Tate, who were married in Hillsboro a few days ago, spent last night in the city en route to Winston.

Mr. Snell will have charge of the cooking department at the oyster supper at the Groomer building tonight.
He knows how to fix them right.

At the Groomer building tonight from 6 to 11 o'clock there will be an oyster supper given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary church.

J. H. West, the Kandy Kitchen man, presents a change of ad today. He is now serving oysters, and all other seasonable delicacies in a manner which will be well pleasing to the most fastidious taste.

We understand the property now occupied by J. H. West, and formerly a part of the Mendenhall estate, has been bought by Rev. W. L. Grissom, the sale being made through W. R.
Land. In all probability a handsome building will be erected on this spot in the near future.

The members of Capt. Gray's Company (D) will be mustered out here on November 10th. Colonel Burgin was in Washington last night begging for the Second Regiment to be kept in service, but the probabilities are that the program will not be changed and that the second will go out, as the soldiers so greatly desire.

Guilford's Big Game.

On Saturday, November 5, at 2:30 o'clock, there will be a game of football between the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, of Blacksburg, Va., and Guilford, on the grounds of the latter at Guilford College.

Those interested in football will remember that the former team defeated
U. N. C. last year by a score of 4 to 0.
Guilford's team is now in good trim and the people of Greensboro who who would like to see a good game, should not fail to take a trip out to Guilford then. Everybody is invited to be present.

Attention H. and S.

Regular monthly meeting of your company tonight, 7:30 o'clock. Every member is urged and expected to be present promptly.

By order of the foreman.
O. D. Boycott, Foreman.
Lee G. Wharton, Secretary.

THE FIRE THIS MORNING.

The Store of C. C. Buchanan Totally Destroyed.

The store of C. C. Buchanan on E.
Washington street was destroyed by fire between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning. A policeman saw the fire from the depot and turned in the alarm from box 42, corner of South Elm and Buchanan streets. This of course confused the firemen, it being a good distance from the fire, but the whole department responded and were soon at work on the flames. The store was already burned almost down, but the firemen stopped it where they found it and saved an adjoining building occupied by negroes.

The dwelling caught again at 7 o'clock this morning and the firemen went out again and extinguished it for good.

Mr. Buchanan's loss is between $300 and $400, fully covered by insurance.
The building belonged to John J.
Phoenix and was insured for $150.
Mr. Phoenix had a force of hands at work before 10 o'clock this morning repairing the damaged dwelling and said he would begin building a new brick store to replace the old one before long. He will have it completed before long and ready for occupancy.
He is a hustler, and fire doesn't seem to stop him.
